Dining Services

how it works

Meal swipes can be used in the Dining Hall 7 days a week, as well as at Pepper's Grill Monday - Friday and at Chick-fil-A Monday - Thursday from 10:00 pm - 11:30 pm. Retail meal exchange swipes can be used for predetermined combo meals at participating campus restaurants. Participating locations include Chick-fil-A, Mein Bowl, Taco Bell, Jimmy John's, Dunkin', and Blended Pedaler. Block plans offer meal swipes for use at any location, any time of day, but come with a set number of meals for the semester.

DINING DOLLARS & FLEX DOLLARS

are both types of declining balance accounts on your ID card that come with the purchase of your All-Access Plan (Dining Dollars) or Block Plan (Flex Dollars) and are available to spend at all dining locations on campus. If you are running low on Flex Dollars, you may purchase additional Flex Dollars by visiting our website and selecting the Shop tab. Additional Dining Dollars may also be purchased through the Get App. Both Flex and Dining Dollars roll over from fall semester to spring semester and expire at the end of spring semester.

BONUS! IF YOU ADD A MINIMUM OF $50 IN FLEX, YOU WILL RECEIVE 10% MORE FREE!

ID BUC$ are another form of payment that may be purchased through the Get App or by using cash or credit card at one of the three ID BUC$ machines on campus. ID BUC$ may be used to dine on campus and at participating locations and services. A full list of locations may be found by searching ID Bucs at etsu.edu.

meal plan options

All students living on campus, with the exception of those living in Buccaneer Ridge, will be assigned an All-Access Silver Plan as part of their residential experience but may upgrade to the All-Access Gold for more flexibility. Guest meals attached to the All-Access Plans allows students to bring a guest into the Dining Hall. All residential plans are non-taxed. Commuters and Buccaneer Ridge residents may purchase any Block Plan or All-Access Plan below. All Block Plans and Commuter All-Access Plans are taxable. All meal plans purchased in the fall are a two-semester (fall and spring) commitment.
