

Other Dietary Needs

The College of New Jersey is committed to addressing your culinary needs and concerns. We are here to support anyone following a specific diet for religious reasons or for health-related reasons, including:

Irritable Bowel Syndrome
Gastrointestinal Diseases
Food Allergies

Students, faculty, and staff are welcome to join our monthly Dining Services Committee meetings. You can find the schedule for dates, times, and locations here.

Any student having questions about the foods served should contact : Ava Gamba, Registered Dietitian, at sdhrd@tcnj.edu, Vincent Papp, General Manager, at vincent.papp@sodexo.com.
